

WESTERLY EMBEZZLER OVER SEA

Peter M. Rose, Wanted in Court, Still in Sunny Italy—Must Pay for Continuance of Case Two Weeks—Death of Mrs. Katherine A. Wilson—Deeds Filed Transferring Street Railways to Norwich-Westerly Traction Co.

Inasmuch as the names of the judge, the town solicitor and chief of police were used by Peter M. Rose as an aid in securing money from some of his countrymen in connection with liquor cases that were claimed he could settle and avoid prosecution, it is but natural that the officials are anxious that the affair be given the closest investigation. Rose has been dodging trial but the $600 surety in the bond that binds him is liable to force him to trial.

He was arrested charged with embezzlement on two counts and when the case reached the Third district court, continuance was granted for two weeks, but Rose failed to appear. There was another continuance of two weeks. Then Judge John W. Sweeney, counsel for Rose, stated that his client had gone to his native Italy, but was coming back and a further continuance of three weeks was granted.

This brought the case for trial at the regular session of the Third district court Friday, but Rose was not in court. His counsel stated that the wife of the accused had received a cablegram from Italy that Rose was coming back and would be here within two weeks. Judge Sweeney asked for continuance for that period and was opposed by Town Solicitor Harry B. Agard. After a long discussion Judge Williams granted the continuance, the defendant to pay all costs regardless of the result of the trial.

Deputy Sheriff Casey's little trick dog, the same that was reported as being washed ashore dead at Pleasant View, when it was rumored that the sheriff was probably drowned during the severe storm of last summer, was struck by an automobile when in Lester street Friday, and severely injured. The reported finding of the dead dog on the shore strengthened the report that the sheriff had been drowned as the dog had left Westerly with him in a power boat bound for Block Island fishing grounds. As a matter of fact dog did not accompany his master on that perilous trip.

Mrs. Katherine Agnes Wilson, matron of the State Home for Feeble Minded Persons, died Thursday of pneumonia. She was 64 years of age and widow of Andrew Wilson. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kennedy of Potter Hill. Burial was at Pleasant View.

ECZEMA BROKE OUT ON FACE WITH RASH

Had to Tie Hands Behind Back. Itched So Would Scratch All Night. Could Not Sleep. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured Entirely.

16 Hancock St., Newburyport, Mass.—"I was troubled with eczema for a long time. It broke out on my face with a rash. I had to tie my hands behind my back when I went to bed, because I itched so badly that I would scratch all night. I could not sleep nights at all. I tried all kinds of medicines without relief, and thought I could not be cured. One day I saw the advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I bought a box and used it. After the first treatment I could sleep, good. I had not used it for more than two or three days when I soon found relief. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment for about a month and was cured entirely." (Signed) Peter Stevens, March 28, 1912.

BREAKING OUT ON THE FACE

Got All Over Face and in Hair.

General Delivery, Pittsfield, Mass.—"My oldest girl began breaking out on the face with a sore. It began to run and be watery, and scabbed formed over it. It got all over her face and in her hair so I had to cut it. Her hair came out in places. It was very itchy so I had to hold her hands. I got a box of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment, and she was cured. Her hair came back in and she has beautiful hair now." (Signed) Mrs. L. H. Hannon, Dec. 21, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." 327 Fendlerwood street, Boston. Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

HANDICAPPED

This is the Case With Many Norwich People.

"Too many Norwich citizens are handicapped with bad backs. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest, and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief but cannot reach the cause if the kidneys are weak. To eliminate the pains and aches of kidney back-ache you must cure the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys—thousands testify to their merit. Can you doubt Norwich evidence?"

Mrs. Margaret Brown, 336 W. Main St., Norwich, Conn., says: "My back was in bad shape and I suffered severely from dull, heavy pains across my kidneys. It was almost impossible for me to get out of bed in the morning and I felt miserable in every way. I tried various remedies but was not helped until I read of Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a supply at N. D. Selvin & Son's Drug Store. They made me feel like a different woman, restoring my kidneys to a normal condition and removing the pains in my back."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SAD AND DEPLORABLE.

Hartford Paper Says Mystic Needs Some Better Morals and Better Parents.

Referring to Mystic's scandal the Catholic Transcript says editorially: "The old men who should have better morals, and the young women of Mystic who should have better parents, have given this commonwealth some occasion to reflect. The story which comes from that quiet town is sad and deplorable. But it is immensely more serious than want of instruction? Or are we satisfied to abide the conditions out of which this fearful tragedy has developed? Home, and moving picture show, should claim the evenings of the young. The old men, who took their own lives in confession of their moral turpitude, had evidently more human respect than character. Possibly it was the dregs of a long outraged sense of decency that forced them to put an end to their miserable existence in this world."
